Become a Peer Supporter for Dad's in Halton

Becoming a Dad is the most rewarding and challenging experience of a Dads life.

Dad Matters Halton delivers peer to peer support to new and expectant Dads across Halton. Supporting them with Mental Health Wellbeing, Bonding and Attachment and signposting to local services they can use allowing them to be the best Dad they can be for their families.

2 Hours a Week

Most parents will be familiar with the challenges that come with parenthood and supporting your family during this transitional period.

Could you spare just 2 hours a week to help Dads get through this trying time?

Why Volunteer?

In addition to being an extremely rewarding role, volunteering will help you gain qualifications, skills and experiences to help build a CV and act as a platform into paid employment.
